Next Chapter Gathering: Tuesday August 7, 2018

CD's Corner

Can you believe that half the year is gone already? I have discovered that time really does fly by in a blink of an eye. Here we are celebrating July 4th and in a month the GA District Rally will be starting. If you have not made your reservations, get on-line and make them. We are going to have a great time!

The chapter is sporting a new Chapter banner! I am hoping to unveil it at our July Gathering; that is, if they can print it in time. If not, it will be ready to display at the District Rally. Thanks for everyone that showed up at our last lunch ride and posed for pictures. I think it really represents our chapter. It will be a nice addition to our gatherings.

June was a wet, stormy and hot month so Joe and I did very little riding. It seems I do not handle the heat very well. I had hoped that was behind me, but, I guess not. Just remember that riding in the heat of the day is really hard on your body and dehydration can easily occur with little notice. Always carry water, wear breathable

Goofy's Scorecard—2018

- Jan: Jimmy—For getting "lost" in a round-about.
Feb: Janel—Forgetting which chapter she is CD of!
Mar: Mike—For putting tickets back in the bucket!
Apr: George—For not being able to count & for driving a new Mustang
May: Rick—For Eating Jimmy's lunch.
June: Christine—For leading us through the tiny village on the way to the restaurant .

Goofy's Adventures

My adventure in June started right away. After belting me in back seat, we headed off to Comer, and Christine had another "Goofy" moment, she missed a turn going home where they had lived for 9 years!

I got to live high and in center of kitchen table where Zeus—their Jack Russell—could not find me. I was told Zeus would like to chew my head off if he found me.

In the mornings Christine liked to do he yard work, but it was too hot and dirty for me to help, so I stayed on the window sill to watch and stayed cool. I spent many mornings watching her and I GOT TIRED.

Took a ride to Yesterdays Café. had a great lunch with good friends. Followed Ken home to pick up a jacket for Christine.

I am afraid of the sight of blood, so I stayed home and sent my nephew, mini Goofy, to learn "How To Stop The Bleed." I heard it was a very informative class on how to save a persons life. If you missed it be sure to make it the next time around. Thanks Vance and Fern, and their crew.

How else to end a day, but a trip to Dairy Queen, Who doesn't love ICE CREAM ?

My next adventure was to Top Dawg Tavern. Small crowd, but great food and good company. It had to be good, because it got quiet when the food came out

Over all a quiet month , looking forward for new adventure, maybe with YOU.

Your pal,

Goofy

clothing, and try and ride early in the day.

As always, I am looking for suggestions for rides or activities for the chapter. Send me ideas or call me. I am always glad to hear from you. Recently Joe and I renewed our interest in bowling. If anyone is interested in early Sunday morning bowling at Stars and Strikes, let us know ($.99/game). We are not pros and can't brag about our scores, but we do have a good time. It would be fun to get a team together and join a league...just talking out loud.

Ride safely, and Happy 4th!!

Membership Enhancement:

Celebrations and A Call to Action!

In celebration:

What a great country we live in! Ordinary people are given opportunities that are just not available for most people of the world. This includes our unprecedented ability to enjoy the open road from two or three (or more) wheels. But we all know that this "freedom" we enjoy isn't free. It came at a cost.

During this year's Wing Fling we are called to recognize all of those in our military that have given their service, and at times there very lives, to provide us the benefits and freedoms we enjoy today. If it weren't for these brave souls, this experiment in government, "of the people, by the people, and for the people" would not exist.

Now for the call:

We have an opportunity to have some fun coming up at Wing Fling. It has been a while since the Southern Wings has participated in the District Talent Show. The last time was in 2008 or 2009 (we think) when we tied for 1st place with a rendition of "My Wing," sung to the tune of the Temptations My Girl.

WE WANT YOU!

We think we have a good idea, rally theme appropriate, for this year's show and are looking for a few selfless volunteers to help us make history again as Chapter S returns to the stage. Nothing should be too hard or require any special skills, and we think we can polish up the details in one or two practice sessions before the big night. So if you want to help out, have some great fun in the process, please say "yes" when asked to help.

Janel will have some more details at Tuesday's Chapter Gathering. (Traci and I are sad that we can't attend—we are in Florida celebrating her folks 60th wedding anniversary, before heading to Louisiana to celebrate my dad's 80th birthday.)

And to those selfless individuals—from 1776 through today—thank you for your service!

AND NOW YOU KNOW:

How did "Uncle Sam" get his name?

The original "Uncle Sam"—goatee, twinkling eye, and all—was Samuel Wilson, born in West Cambridge, Massachusetts. In time, he moved with his brother Ebenezer to Troy, New York, where they formed a partnership in the meat-packing business. The brothers contracted to supply the Army with beef and port during the War of 1812, and marked their shipping barrels "U.S." The soldiers jokingly called the meat "Uncle Sam's" beef or pork—since "Uncle Sam" Wilson's first two initials coincided with the "U.S." marking on the barrels. A soldier drew a caricature of Sam Wilson with his goatee and flowing hair and labeled the picture, "Uncle Same of the U.S.A." This picture was the original of the ones used to depict "Uncle Sam" today.
