Happy Thanksgiving, everyone! I know folks are getting busy for the holidays and making plans to visit family far and wide. Here's hoping you can squeeze some Chapter S activities into your busy schedules.

Aside from our usual rides that are planned please note and add the Salvation Army Toys for Tots Ride December 7th at Cycle World of Athens. Chapter S will be doing the registration, selling of the 50/50 tickets, and selling T-shirts. All volunteers are welcomed as well as riding with the group. Lunch is included with your registration fee of $10 a rider or a $10 unwrapped child's gift for the Salvation Army locally in Athens. See me for further details. I know it rained last year but that didn't prevent folks from riding their motorcycles and participating.

Our Holiday Party is set for December 8th from 1pm to 5pm at the Community building, Briarcrest Drive, Jefferson, GA 30549 (off HWY 11). The chapter will provide the meat, so bring a pot luck dish and a gift to exchange. We always have a good time.

As always, we welcome new members so bring a friend to one of our activities.

Goofy's Adventures

I went home with Vance last month and he wore me out! First off, he took me to an ARC and I got real dizzy going around and around.

Next, we changed the oil in his bike and then Charleen brought her trike over and Vance had me help change her oil, that's a messy job. We went to visit Chapter T that night. Vance & Fern both won a door prize.

Then we went to a trike shop and they ordered a kit to convert their bike into a trike. From there we went to a great BBQ restaurant that Vance & Fern like and then rode to Upson county so they can color in another county they have ridden in. That makes 155 counties out of 159. 4 more to go.

The next day we went to a mule festival down near Washington. We saw a sheep dog demonstration, a dulcimer band and mule soccer.

The next day was his birthday and their anniversary, so we went to Carlos & Cherie's cabin for a party. There was lots of good food and everybody ate a lot and talked a lot.

Next, we went to Spooktacular in Jug Tavern Park in Winder and gave out a lot of candy to a whole bunch of kids, then we went to the Auburn Festival where they gave out survival information to people.

Next we rode to Ellijay and bought some apples and fried pies.

We went to the Haunted Jail in Winder where the CERT team were the guides for 3 nights taking people through the jail. There were some really scary things in there.

Finally, they let me help to give out candy to all the little trick or treaters on Halloween.

Somebody please take me to a house where the people relax a little.

Till next time, your pal,

Goofy
