Chapter Gathering: 1st Tuesday of the month, meet at 6:00 PM, eat at 7:00 PM, El Centinela, Winder, Georgia. Our next Gathering is scheduled for October 6, 2020

CD's Corner

Can you believe we have entered into the ninth month of 2020? Most of us have spent this year isolating in our homes wondering if and when our lives would return. Now the weather is not cooperating. Between the heat, rain and hurricanes, riding has not been a top priority.

The good news is that the Georgia District Ride In will soon be here. If you have not made your hotel reservations or turned in your registration, you still have time to complete this. There will be fun rides, good food and lots of friends to interact with.

So make plans for the October Ride In and keep checking on our webpage, Facebook page and the Group In for upcoming Chapter events.

Ride Safe!

Goofy's Adventures

Hey Everybody,

Your old pal Goofy here. I went home with Vance this month. He didn't do anything goofy last month, but neither did anyone else, so Janel pulled his name from the bucket.

Because of the coronavirus, we did a lot of sitting around their house just trying to stay safe, but we did get out a few times. He even put a mask on me.

We went to the Walk of Heroes in Rockdale County just south of Loganville. That was really a neat salute to the military.

We rode with Woody & Carol to Tennessee for a weekend to meet for lunch with a bunch of Gold-wingers. I had to ride in the trunk because we were afraid it would rain on me. The only time it really rained was one day while they were in a country café having lunch. We went to an old hotel in the little town of Red Boiling Springs for the Ride-In and we also saw 2 covered bridges in town.

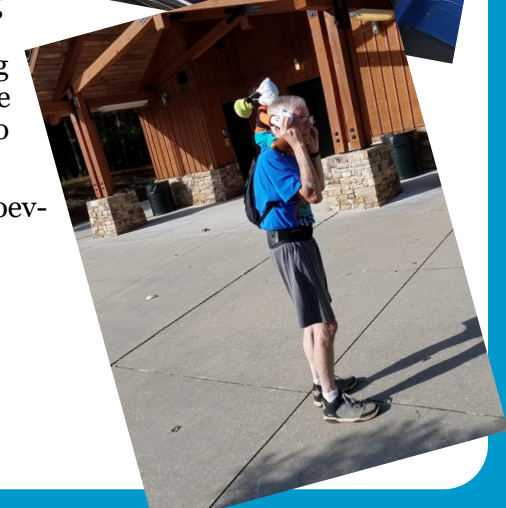

Vance let me ride the Roomba when he vacuumed the house. That was like riding in a rodeo.

Other than that, they go walking in parks a lot. Fern walks between 4 and 5 miles every morning in their neighborhood, and every other day she walks another 3.5 miles with Vance. He's keeping his strength up for when he goes back in for more back surgery. He took me with him, but he had to carry me when I got too tired.

I hope this pandemic thing gets over soon so whoever I go home with next can take me more places.

Until next time,
Your Pal Goofy
