Goofy's Adventures

Well I got to the home of Bob and Suzi Wiggs and was so excited to go directly into the garage where the bright red trike was parked...Yuk Yuk we are going for a ride!!! Hey wait, I know my arms and legs are too short to drive but why am I getting put into the trunk? Its dark in here. Well Saturday came and went and I thought I was going on the GWRRA ride? Mr Bob had to work so I was happy to see Sunday brought a nice sound of the motor starting and I got to come out of the trunk. We took a ride to several different cities where they had some neat wall paintings on the sides of the buildings. We went to Lilburn and Historic Norcross. Norcross had some fun parks and water features. We ended traveling through Duluth but traffic was heavy and we didn't stop.

Ya know...you are never too old to do goofy things... so the next week I got a real treat. We rode to Snellville and I got to meet SANTA!!! Wow... there were lots of Santa's. We went to eat at Hot and Cold Buffet where they were having a Santa meeting and luncheon. I was so excited that I couldn't eat at all! I learned a lot about being Santa and how he gets around so much...he has lots of help! We ended the day with photos in the parking lot...including some kids that were so excited getting a photo of Me and Santa Bob...they were so thrilled...I didn't know why they thought I was so special!!! Then we had a fun ride home back to Lawrenceville.

The next week we did something really fun. We got to go for a ride on a motorcycle with 4 wheels. Jake Wiggs took us all for rides in something called a Side by Side and we went off roading through miles of woods and trails. I was covered up as it was really muddy and dirty. I wasn't scared....just hiding from the mud. So they didn't even get any photos of me this time.

Gosh... we got home and I got back into the trike trunk again? They must really think I like it there. Since it is getting towards the end of October, I guess I will get to go visit another GWRAA members family. Someday I hope to go back to Disney and take GWRAA members and introduce them all to Mickey and the gang...now that would be a ride (if not in a stuck in a trunk Yuk Yuk)

Safe rides and see Ya next month!!!
