Happy New Year!!

Many are hoping that 2022 is a new start with things going back to something close to normal. Unfortunately, folks are still getting one strain of flu or another and social distancing seems to be the new norm. As for me, my hope is for everyone to get healthy, stay healthy so that our Chapter can get out there and enjoy the roads of Georgia.

As for my New Year's Resolutions, I have none. It is time for us to enjoy ourselves and make plans for some good motorcycle riding. As always, if you have ideas, please pass them along or organize a ride and take the lead.

Hope to see you all soon out on the road!

Goofy's Scorecard—2021

January—Joe: For his "special" light-up Christmas Party outfit

February—Cherie: Missing in action—Ride Loto bag.

March—Traci: Faulty Bingo cards.

April—Joe C.: Unfortunate double entendre

May—Joe P.: Unable to work the copier in his office

June/July—Fern: Parking break issues.

August—Joe P: New hearing aid 'issues'

September—Joe C: Arriving 45 minutes early for a ride—at least it wasn't 45 minutes late!

October—Bob: ?

November—Ken: Missing clue in newsletter word search.

Goofy's Adventures

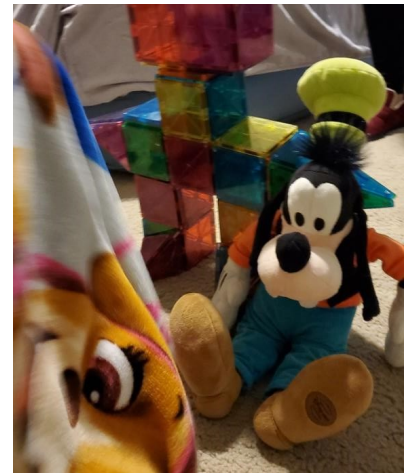

Well gosh, I got to spend a whole two month's with Ken & Traci! What fun with all the eatin' and visitin' and such. We had Traci's friend from Wisconsin come down and stay with us in his RV over Thanksgiving. Then we took a quick trip to Nashville to visit their grandson Booker before his mommy (Ken's daughter Heather) was deployed to the Middle East for 10 months.

With Traci out of town visiting her folks in Florida, Ken forgot all about me, so I didn't get to make it to the Salvation Army Toy Ride. But he made it up by letting me decorate the Christmas tree. I did a right good job, if I say so myself.

It was so much fun visiting with all my riding buddies with Chapter S during the Christmas party at Joe and Barbara's! Man was that cake scrumptious!

Around Christmas their was family in and out all the time with kiddo's and grand kids galore. And don't forget about the grand dogs! Five in all came to visit.

And boy does Carlos know how to make a short trip across the street in to a real neat one and a half hour ride. I was sure hungry when we arrived back to Jack's in Hoschton, where I had a yummy New Years Day feast of country fried steak, black-eyed peas, collard greens and cornbread.

Safe rides and see ya at January's Southern Wings Gathering!!!
