CD's Corner

Happy 2021

With a new year comes the promise of all good things to come. The future lays before us full of adventure, laughter, and hope. Even though we didn't have our usual New Year's Day Ride, doesn't mean we can't start planning other rides and neat places to visit.

Now is the time to start thinking about where you would like to ride, what you would like to see or do. We are always looking for suggestions and ideas. Send a list of places to me or Carlos. They can even be repeat visits. Hopefully, this virus will settle down and we can get back to what we love to do!

Please keep members who are unable to ride or meet with us in your thoughts and prayers.

Stay Safe and Healthy

Interesting Ideas for New Year's Resolutions:

- Get your photo taken in five interesting places—maybe a new ride idea?
- Learn a decent party trick—to use at a Chapter Gathering!
- Break a record—and not the vinyl kind
- Make a new friend every month—and invite them on a ride
- Develop a good relationship with your body—“hi body! What ya’ doin’?”
- Become as fat as I was the very first time that I ever thought I was fat.
- Learn something you never learned as a child—what could everyone else do that you couldn’t? Now is your chance!
- Try a new food each week—sushi anyone?
- Make the usual unusual—in a rut? Do one “routine” thing in a different way each day. (Go ahead, put cream in that coffee!)
- Do something nice for others every day—outward focus instead of inward.
- Pick fewer internet fights
- Finish one of your incomplete DIY projects from 2019—just one!
- Eat dessert first—this one should be easy to keep
- Avoid taking a bath or shower—this is one you’ll have to do alone.
- Do not tell the same story at very Gathering.
- Spend more time behind bars—motorcycle handle bars that is
